 Projects

 10/01/2013

10/01/13. Thursday 10 January 2013. Immersive Vision Theatre, Plymouth University, Plymouth PL4.
i-DAT, in association with Plymouth Astronomical Society, presents:

Heavens Above! A trip to the edge of the Universe – and back again.

i-DAT’s contribution to the BBC Stargazing Live Events Programme is a collaboration with Plymouth University’s Particle Physics Theory Group and the Plymouth Astronomical Society. A series of presentations in the Immersive Vision Theatre will fly audiences to the edge of the known universe – and back again. On the way audiences will visit a variety of cosmological phenomenon, the Planets that form our Solar System and view the constellations visible from Plymouth (with or without cloud cover).
