Arts Council England, Creative Partnerships, cultural regeneration, web 2.0

2006:

Projecting Plymouth is a new way of looking at the future of your city. It aims to give a megaphone to your voices and opinions, enabling you to have an impact on the future of Plymouth. It is about you, your family, your friends, your hopes and your futures. i-DAT develops a Web 2.0 infrastructure/tool for the cultural regeneration of Plymouth by young people. Working with Creative Partnerships and Arts Council England.
